PRAYERS

At the end of our May meeting, prayers were offered for Miguel Haro's wife, all our military, Lupe Guzman's wife Jan, Don Runyun's wife Bettina, Jaunelle and Tony Zeier and Joe's son-in-law Scott Taggart, Father Koch, Roland Sigler, Leroy and Bettie Lay, Cleve Pratt and for Father Martinez' niece. Please offer your prayers for them.

Vocations

Amado Vallejo Garcia, the seminarian our Assembly has been helping with prayers and financial support, will be ordained on June 5th in the Cathedral in Fort Worth.

If any Color Corps members would like to support this event, please call Rudy Martinez ASAP at 855-2305. Rudy has particulars on what is needed. And you would be supporting Amado.

I won't go into details, because most of you can see the story on Amado in the North Texas Catholic. But I do want to say that he is a special man. He comes to our country as a missionary from Mexico. He finished his Seminary there and came here to learn English and be ordained in our Diocese. He was led here by Jesus to minister to the people of our little part of the world.

There are many more men from this Diocese studying in seminaries. One of them, Justin Conover, is a member of our Assembly. So when you are asked to pray for vocations, do so with fervor. Ask God to watch over and guide those who are contemplating a religious vocation. Do what you can in your parish to foster vocations among you friends and family members.

The Diocesan Vocations Awareness Program will be spoken about in every church during the next few weeks. If you know someone who might want to know more about religious life, without any commitment or cost, ask them to investigate this program. It will be held at Holy Trinity Seminary, Irving, TX from Friday evening, June 25th, through noon Sunday, June 27th.

Finally, I recently read a book titled "To Save a Thousand Souls" by Father Brett Brannen. If any young man wants to know what the training and life of a priest requires, get this book into his hands.
